Gosford Public School
White Elephant Stall

As part of our sesquicentenary celebrations we will be holding a white elephant stall on Saturday 17th October 2015. Over the remainder of the term (and September/October holidays), we are asking that you have a spring clean out and put aside any items that are in excellent condition.

Collectable items include: books (for children and adults), DVDs, handbags, knickknacks, jewellery (not earrings), toys, board games, tableware (no chipped or broken glass) etc.

We are not collecting any clothing, VCR videos, electric appliances or bulky items! Please note, all items must be new or in excellent condition.

Our White Elephant stall also needs plastic bags and flattened boxes.

If you have any of these items, please bring them in to GPS on Wednesday 7th October 2015 between 8.30am and 12.00pm. Drop offs to the Chapman Room.

Thank you for supporting our school and sesquicentenary!

Volunteers Needed

With the 150th celebration fast approaching, we are in desperate need of parent and community volunteers. Prior to the day, we need helpers for:

- The white elephant drive
- Cake stall co-ordination
- Obtaining donations from businesses
- Selling raffle tickets
- And more.....

On the day (17.10.15), we need helpers for:

- Running the BBQ's
- Selling drinks
- Running the cake stall
- Running the White Elephant Stall
- Face Painting
- Selling in the canteen
- Handing out programs
- And more...

If you are able to help out, please tear off the slip and return it to Ms Smith in 6S by Friday 21st August 2015.
